The letter attached hereto, which is self-explanatory, requires that [redacted] be subject to the California Revenue and Taxation Code for the period of time during which he was assigned to Los Angeles. To review the matter briefly [redacted] bought his car in Atlanta, Georgia in May 1955, prior to assignment to this Project, and was on TDY in Los Angeles with his personal automobile from July 1955 to March 1956. The personal automobile was definitely required by [redacted] to properly discharge his designated duties in Los Angeles.

It is recommended that the necessary action be initiated to have the proper authority at the Belling Field Headquarters Command issue a "To Whom It May Concern" letter stating that [redacted] was in Los Angeles on temporary detached duty for the USAF as a USAF civilian. [redacted] will thereby be in position to forward this letter to the Sales Tax Administrator to show why the tax law does not apply in his case.
